Question 2

Imagine that you are the writer's son or daughter. After you have left Clytha Castle you write a journal entry describing your visit.

Write the words of your journal entry.

In the journal entry you should include the following information:

- your first impressions of Clytha Castle
- what it was like and how it may have been different from your expectations
- what you liked most about the visit.

Base your journal entry on what you have read in Passage A, but do not copy from it. Be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your journal entry: 'I have just left the most unusual place ... '

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

This image shows a full page of a handwriting practice worksheet. It consists of approximately 20 horizontal rows. Each row is defined by two parallel dashed lines, creating a series of uniform gaps for letter height. The lines are evenly spaced across the entire page, providing a guide for consistent letter formation. There is no text or other markings on the page.
