READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

DO NOT WRITE IN ANY BARCODES.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 12 printed pages and 1 Reading Booklet Insert.

Read carefully Passage A, *My career as a journalist begins, in the Reading Booklet Insert and then answer Questions 1 and 2 on this Question Paper.

Question 1

Imagine you are Doris. Years later, now successful yourself, you are interviewed by a national radio programme about your family, brother and memories of the upbringing the two of you had.

The interviewer asks you the following three questions only:

- What do you remember about your family and the values and attitudes to life they each had?
- Your brother claims he started his career in journalism at the age of eight. Tell us your memories of him and what happened at that time.
- Looking back, can you explain how the skills and qualities you had as a child helped you get where you are today?

Write your response to each of the interviewer's questions.

Base your interview on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your interview with your answer to the first question.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.
